Hilton Head Hospital's outpatient center opens in Bluffton, S.C.

The $16 million, 60,000 square foot Bluffton Medical Campus consolidates many healthcare services under one roof

BLUFFTON, S.C., Feb. 12, 2014 – Rendina Companies announces the completion of the $16 million Bluffton Medical Campus – a 60,000 square foot, two-story outpatient center. The new facility is located off U.S. 278 in Bluffton, 12 miles from Hilton Head Hospital.

The Bluffton Medical Campus consolidates many of the services Hilton Head Regional Healthcare offers throughout greater Bluffton, making it a one-stop-shop for the community.

“The new outpatient center was designed with extensive input from our physicians and colleagues to optimize the outpatient experience for patients and their families,” Hilton Head Regional Healthcare CEO Mark O’Neil says. “We offer a wide range of outpatient diagnostic services in one convenient and patient-friendly environment.”

The new facility is home to numerous specialized healthcare services, including an imaging center with a CT scanner, a nuclear medicine camera, and additional equipment for ultrasounds and radiography. Other building services include orthopedics, a breast health center and various types of therapies and physicians’ offices. Future expansion is available on the 12-acre lot to further broaden the range of healthcare services being provided to the Bluffton community.

“The quality mix of services will create opportunities not only for the hospital and the physician groups, but for the community as well,” says Richard M. Rendina, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Rendina Companies.

Representatives from Rendina Companies, Hilton Head Regional Healthcare, Tenet Healthcare Corp., Fraser Construction and local government officials were all present for the grand opening and ribbon cutting Tuesday,

The newly opened, $16 million, 60,000 square foot Bluffton Medical Campus in Bluffton, S.C., houses a range of specialized healthcare services.
